

Multiparticle Coincidences Studies of Photoionization of Quantum Halos

Reinhard Dörner
Frankfurt University, Germany

We will discuss recent experiment on the most "quantum" of all molecules, the Helium Dimer. This super dilute system shows an extreme internuclear distance of 52 Angstrom and is bound by only neV.

We show how a single photon can lead to double ionization of the two distant centers.